

COVID-19 Assistance Fund

Dear Son of a Saint friends, partners and supporters,

As an organization that's been here to support a crucial part of the New Orleans community, I'd like to assure you we are not stopping. We are in no position to pause or even lessen the level of what we do. In fact, it's quite the opposite. However, due to these challenging and unprecedented times, we are up against a test to our mission.

To help the families in our program, we've established the Son of a Saint COVID-19 Assistance Fund. This discretionary reserve fund is intended to not only enable us to meet critical needs of mentees and their families, but also to directly mitigate our operational budget deficit in response to the onset of COVID-19 and its ongoing effects.

Our mentees' families are facing increased challenges, including single-parent households managing children at home, grandparent guardians feeling anxiety about being at higher risk for the virus, lack of technology and internet connectivity for at-home learning and some families still struggling with food insecurity.

Simply put, we have to fill the gap. This means providing essential assistance, including food access and delivery, teletherapy, technology for continuing education, virtual programming and other basic needs, all in adherence with safety guidance from the CDC and the City of New Orleans.

Our focus for the foreseeable future includes sustaining operations and meeting mentees' immediate and critical needs during this difficult time. This is exactly when we're needed most. So, we thank you for your ongoing support, and we also come to you at this urgently important juncture because we need you now more than ever.
